

Vince & Larry – The Crash Test Dummies

Vince and Larry, the now famous crash test dummy characters, are extremely popular with youngsters. The paid help educate children about the importance of wearing safety belts. Children, in turn, encourage their parents to buckle up based on their enthusiasm for safety belts.

Vince and Larry costumes are available for loan from several locations throughout the state. You may contact the agency nearest you to borrow the costumes for your local events.

Agency	Address	Contact Name and Number
Office of Highway Safety Planning (Lansing Office)	4000 Collins Road P. O. Box 30633 Lansing, MI 48909	Elaine Keilen or Kim Harris-Burrows (517) 333-5325
Office of Highway Safety Planning (Marquette Office)	Michigan State Police 8 th District Headquarters 1504 West Washington Street, Suite A Marquette, MI 49855	Jamie Dolan (906)225-7036
Cadillac Police Department	200 Lake Street Cadillac, MI 49601	David Koenig (231) 775-3491
Gratiot-Isabella Regional Education Service District	1131 East Center Street Ithaca, MI 48847	Pamela Sook (989) 875-5101 ext. 339
Clare County Sheriff's Office	225 West Main Street Harrison, MI 48625	Undersheriff Barney Ledford or Lt. Rick Miller (989) 539-7166
Flushing Township Police Department	6524 North Seymour Road Flushing, MI 48433	Chief Doug Kennedy (810) 659-0809
Washtenaw County Human Services	Public Health Division 555 Tower Street P. O. Box 915 Ypsilanti, MI 48197	Pat Beckley or Vicki Nighseander (734) 544-6700

Revised 11/9/05